- And so much more!

More about Shauna- Shauna moved to Seattle in 2006 for college and graduated with a B.F.A in Theatre Performance from Cornish College of the Arts. Shauna began reading palms at the age of eight. Growing up, she always felt and saw spirits around her. She grew up extremely empathic and as a young child, this natural sensitivity was difficult to harness and fully understand. After Shauna's father passed away when she was 19, she had a life changing spiritual experience that allowed her to own her gifts and use them to heal and help others connect with their guides and past loved ones. Her readings are always of a positive uplifting nature and to the point. She is clairvoyant, clairsentient, clairaudient, and claircognizant. She works with the Archangels, Ascended Masters, and Beings of the Light. During readings, clients can receive a Palm Reading, Psychic/Medium reading, and an Oracle Card reading.

Shauna also channels messages from the Archangels. She often will receive insight during her classes and facilitates others on their journey in opening their intuition. She is a firm believer that all people have the ability to utilize their own inherent intuition in business and life. Learning to identify and utilize your natural gifts in a very personal way allows you to be empowered and promote self-healing. There is no "one-right way" to connecting with the light...as long as your intention is of the highest good and non-fear based. Fear, anger, and negativity are lower vibrational energies that hold you back from your own Divine life purpose. By learning to focus on the positive and unconditional love of the Creator, you can learn to better connect with your higher self and move forward fearlessly.
