

Robyn Slagle

Energetic Body Healer

Robyn is a Licensed Massage Therapist and uses a number of energy healing modalities to clear physical and emotional congestion. She will create a custom combination for your current needs.

Some of her modalities include Reiki, Jin Shin Jyutsu, Light Language and Divine Intervention (a healing modality passed down from a Mayan Lineage).

She uses these to assist you in clearing non-beneficial energy in the physical and subtle body which then creates a natural flow and regeneration of health.

This gentle work can be used on anyone of any age or physical health.

Robyn enjoys sharing her experience and teaching others how to help themselves.
